

40 God-inspired life-lessons & stories will captivate you as The Naked Truth takes you on a transparent journey of faith, truth, and courage.

Dear Friend,

Many thought-provoking stories and questions will captivate you as the Naked Truth takes you on a transparent journey of faith, truth, and courage.

It's time to unveil your vulnerability and expose the real YOU. It's time to watch God's transformation melt away your pain, sorrow, discouragement, and disillusionment. It's time to turn your dread into delight and your pain into purpose.

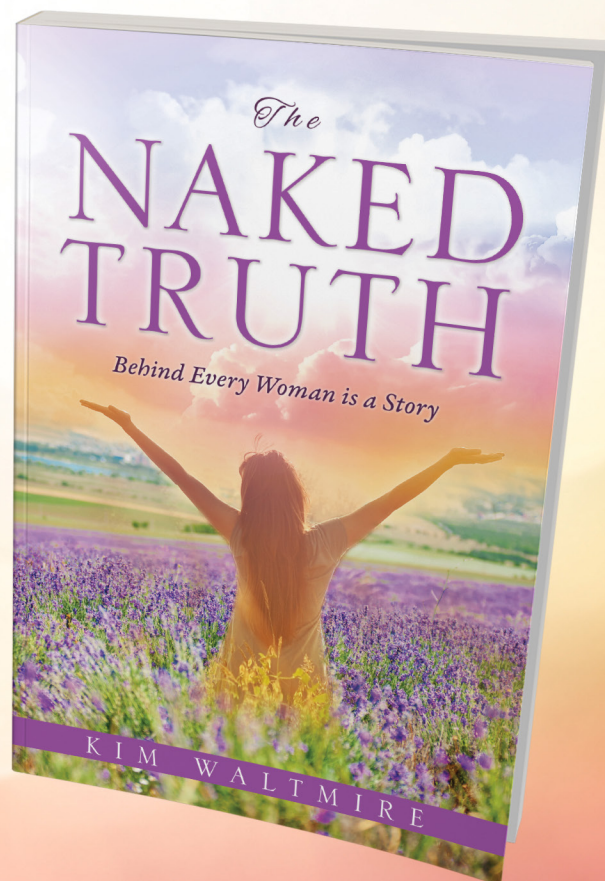

Wherever you may be in your life's journey, the Naked Truth is an invitation for you to be a witness to God's healing and convictions. What if someone you share your story with, one day, becomes someone who God uses to inspire others?

Your story matters. You are uniquely created and your life is significant to others and more importantly, God. He will determine when the last page of our story is written, but until then, it's up to you and me to LIVE it, EXPOSE it, and SHARE it!

These 40 personal, God-inspired stories are meant to influence you, not impress you. These life-lessons are meant to captivate you, not control you. Just maybe one of these stories will persuade you to recognize the naked truth, build your faith, and give you the courage to disclose one of your stories, so others will know the real you. Only then, will the healing begin. Join me on this journey; you will be glad you did!

Kim
